The subject of the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday in all Churches of Christ, is "Everlasting Punishment." The Golden Text is from Proverbs: "Righteousness keepeth him that is upright in the way; but wickedness overthroweth the sinner."
 One of the Scriptural citations in the Lesson-Sermon includes these passages from Acts: "Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas; this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did. And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: ... And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them. Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: ... But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes; and when she saw Peter, she sat up."
 Included in the Lesson-Sermon are these words from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "In the Science of Christianity, Mind-omnipotence has all-power, assigns sure rewards to righteousness, and shows that matter can neither heal nor make sick, create nor destroy."

Answers to Presidential Election Quiz

Here are the answers to the presidential election quiz published on Page 6-A:

1.—In some states the electors for the first election in 1789 were chosen by a direct vote of the people. In others, the state legislature appointed them. The Legislature of the state of New York could not agree as to the manner of choosing its electors with the result that New York did not take part in the election.

2.—Thomas Jefferson in 1800; John Q. Adams in 1824.

3.—In the Presidential election of 1824 the electoral vote was divided among four candidates: Jackson 99, Adams 84, Crawford 41, Clay 37. Majority required 131. Clay was eliminated and the House of Representatives chose Adams.

4.—Missouri had not fully complied with the necessary requirements for admission as a state when the electoral vote of 1820 was counted. Its vote was included under a Congressional resolution, which stated substantially that the result of the election would not have been altered regardless of whether the vote of the state was included or not. This method was used subsequently when the result would not have been affected, notably in the case of Michigan in the election of 1836.

5.—This happened in 1836 when the vote cast for Vice-President was: Johnson 147, Granger 77, Tyler 47, Smith 23. Majority required 148. The Senate elected Johnson by a vote of 35 to 16.

6.—Two sets of returns were sent in by rival Louisiana state governments in 1872. Congress rejected them both. The vote of the state of Arkansas was rejected the same year because of a technicality.

7.—Democratic in 1828; Republican in 1856.

8.—In the early elections, the majority of the electors were appointed by the state legislatures, but this franchise was soon extended to the people, who in 1828 voted for presidential electors in all states except Delaware and South Carolina.

9.—South Carolina continued to have its electors appointed by the state legislature until after the War Between the States.

10.—No official notice is given the President-elect.

11.—James Knox Polk is considered as the first "Dark Horse" having been nominated by the Democrats in 1844 after Ex-President Van Buren led in the early balloting.

12.—Tom.

13.—John Adams and Thomas Jefferson. James Monroe died July 4, 1831.

14.—Eight: Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Harrison, Tyler, Taylor and Wilson were born in Virginia. Seven were born in Ohio: Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Harrison, McKinley, Taft and Harding. Other states to have a son in the White House are: Massachusetts, South Carolina, New York, North Carolina, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Vermont, New Jersey, and Iowa.

15.—Herbert Hoover in West Branch, Iowa.

16.—Grover Cleveland in 1884-88 and 1892-96.

17.—Harrison, Taylor, Lincoln, McKinley and Harding.

18.—William Henry Harrison
